Other Information:

- We will meet at PCC to warm up, rehearse, and change into our attire.
- At around 11:15am, we'll head to the airport and check-in at the admin office on the second floor. You can bring a light lunch for our small break.
- We will start singing on the second floor near the screening area entrance, move to bag claim on the first floor and then the ticket counter area on first floor.
- Afterwards we'll take a break in the admin office and head back out again.
- Once we've concluded, please return to PCC and return the elf outfits.
- With the airport being busy for the holidays, be aware that parking may take time for families choosing to stay and watch.
