- Singers will lead children through singing and songwriting activities themed around grief and trauma to help students navigate those emotions and experiences.
- Camp Monarch is a grief camp for children and teens, ages 5 - 17.
- This is a closed, private event, so it will not be possible for parents to stay and observe, but we look forward to sharing our stories and experience afterwards! This will be PCC's first collaboration with Nonie's Place, and we are excited to give the gift of music to young people in our community who are most in need of its healing powers.
